WILL NOT CONSENT TO AN ARMISTICE

Carranza's Agents Are Certain of His Position

CONFERENCE IS HELD

President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and John Lind Confer at the White House Over General Developments in Situation

Washington, June 9.—Every indication in Washington today pointed to some form of Constitutionalist participation in the Niagara Falls mediation conference, tending toward the settlement of international differences affecting the Huerta Government as well as the internal troubles in Mexico. It was expected that the definite position of Carranza would be communicated to Niagara Falls before many hours.

Senor Rafael Zubaran, Carranza's agent here, however, announced late tonight that again he had been unsuccessful in his efforts to get into direct telegraphic communication with General Carranza at Saltillo and that as a result it was probable that no word from the first chief in regard to mediations would be received before tomorrow.

Some of the Constitutionalists here in touch with their leader insisted that Carranza would not consent to an armistice. They said he would agree to peace proposals as they relate to establishment of a provisional government pending a general election provided representation is given in the prevailing government to the Constitutionalist.

Should Carranza refuse a cessation of hostilities it seemed improbable here that his representatives would be received in the mediation conference.

While the mediators and Mexican delegates were deliberating today on peace plans formulated by the Washington government, President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and John Lind, who represents the State Department in negotiations with Carranza's representatives here conferred. Later Secretary Bryan declared that both the President and himself were hopeful of Constitutionalist participation in ultimate plans for peace in Mexico.

Some Features Differ

It was learned that some features proposed by the administration differed from the peace plan originally submitted by the mediators and the plans of the Huerta commissioners, relating to treatment of the Constitutionalists.

The subject of ammunition from the United States for the Constitutionalists continued a matter of official concern. Cabinet deliberations resulted in an order from Secretary of Commerce Redfield to hold up a cargo of ammunition enroute to Galveston aboard the Morgan liner El Sud for trans-shipment to Tampico. Constitutionalist leaders were surprised to learn of this action but they were pleased to learn there had ben no interference with the loading of the Hamburg-American steamship Arcadia at Baltimore. This ship took on $10,000 worth of ammunition consigned to Hamburg but the Baltimore collecter reported that he regarded the clearance as a subterfuge.

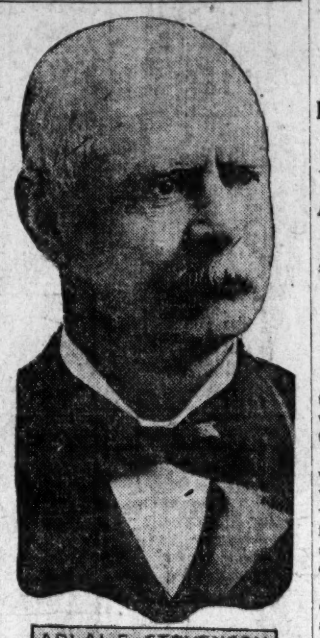
ADLAI E. STEVENSON IS CRITICALLY ILL.



ADLAI E. STEVENSON

Chicago, June 9.—Adlai E. Stevenson, ex-vice president of the United States, is seriously ill at the Presbyterian hospital, suffering from a nervous breakdown. Relatives and friends began to express anxiety for him because of his advanced age, he being nearly eighty years old. Mr. Stevenson came to Chicago from his home in Bloomington nearly a month ago and because of the crowded condition of the hospital went to the home of his son-in-law, the Rev. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church. He was taken to the hospital last week.

DEFEAT RACING BILL BY A NARROW MARGIN

Louisiana Legislature Takes Final Action

Greatest Excitement in Years Prevailed at Baton Rouge When Bill Was Being Considered—Both Sides Fought.

Baton Rouge, La., June 9.—Attended by such excitement as has not been witnessed here in years over a measure in the legislature, the Louisiana House of Representatives late today defeated the bill that would have made horse racing in Louisiana possible. The House vote was 55 to 50 on a motion to indefinitely postpone action on the measure. This action was equivalent to killing the bill outright. Only five representatives were absent. At each session of the legislature since 1908, when horse race gambling was abolished in Louisiana, there has been talk of introducing a bill to regulate and restore the sport. Not until this session was such a bill put forward, however.

The Reinhardt bill was introduced four weeks ago. At first it was not generally taken seriously, even many of those who favored it did not think it had a chance to pass. Its friends began to grow in numbers, however, until the whole State was aroused. The brief campaign for and against the bill was marked by three mass meetings in New Orleans, two for and one against it, women's organizations took action and ministers preached about it. Two hundred men from New Orleans working for the bill arrived here yesterday. Those against the bill also had workers here.

Those against the bill made no attempt to marshal their forces to win in two preliminary votes, but waited until today when a motion was made to advance it to third reading and passage. This was amended to indefinitely postpone, and the amendment carried.

The Reinhardt bill provided for the Pari-Mutuel system of betting and a State commission to govern racing.

BETTER WEATHER CONDITIONS FOR CROP GROWTH IN SOUTH.

Prevailed During the Past Week, Says Weather Bureau Weekly.

Washington, June 9.—Better weather conditions for crop growth prevailed in the South during the week which ended yesterday, according to the National Weekly Weather Bulletin issued by the weather bureau today. It says:

"Over the cotton region local showers greatly improved the outlook in the central and eastern portions of the belt and the plant is making good progress where sufficient rain fell, but large areas received little or no beneficial rains and are still suffering, especially the late planted crop.

"In the western portion of the belt the weather was the most favorable for several weeks. Warm and dry weather permitted replanting and cultivation in Texas and Oklahoma, and conditions in those States are generally improved. In Arkansas cotton is reported as making slow growth on account of drought.

"In the trucking districts of the South some relief was afforded by local showers but large areas are still dry and much injury has occurred to the various crops."

TILLMAN HAS SAY ON TOLLS REPEAL

Declares President Made a Grave Mistake

ACTION IN DAY OR TWO

Steady Progress Made in Senate on Bill But Administration Leaders Will Not Predict Day for Final Vote.

Washington, June 9.—The Senate today marched steadily forward toward final action on the tolls exemption repeal bill, but leaders tonight were unwilling to predict the day when a vote can be taken. There was no certainty tonight as to just when a vote would be taken on the first proposition to be disposed of, the so-called Simmons-Norris amendment qualifying terms of the bill.

Senator, Borah an anti-repeal leader, predicted that this amendment alone would be debated for five hours. Action on the entire bill within the next day or two, however, hardly can be avoided unless there are unexpected developments or an unlooked for filibuster on the part of anti-repealers.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, today made an unusual speech criticising the President in vigorous terms for bringing the tolls issue before the country at this time and endangering the chances of the Democratic party in the congressional elections next fall.

Senator Tillman announced he would vote for repeal only because he felt his State party convention had freed him from the tolls joker in the Baltimore platform.

"It staggers my common sense and I have been unable to understand just why he projected the fight on his party at this time," he said.

Must Control Next Congress.

"It is of great importance to the Democratic party to control the House at the next election and I believe the President should have kept quiet until that election was over."

This speech came at the close of a day devoted to debate on the tolls bill.

"Until this issue was pressed to the front the course of Democracy had been onward and upward," Senator Tillman declared. "There are so many things of more importance that the Democrats ought to do that I must say in my opinion it was a great blunder on the part of the President. The Democratic party, instead of presenting a solid united front is split into contending factions."

The senator recalled that Theodore Roosevelt, "the great advertiser had come home delighted." He devoted his attention to Senator O'Gorman, anti-repeal leader, suggesting that in the campaign the New York senator would have some difficulty in explaining why two planks so antagonistic as the tolls and ship subsidy planks were placed in the Baltimore platform.

Senator Tillman said the tolls fight had made it very unhappy for him. He recalled that when the Spanish treaties were before the Senate he charged his colleague, Senator McLaurin with selling out to the Republicans and blows followed. Then, he said, he had inserted in the South Carolina constitution for McLaurin's sake, a provision that candidates should obey their party platforms.

"I would feel very unhappy if McLaurin could justly charge me with prescribing specific for him which I myself am unwilling to take," added the senator. He explained, however, that the recent South Carolina State convention of his party had adopted a resolution in favor of the repeal bill."

SENATOR TILLMAN WANTS CARE OF GRAND CHILDREN.

During Months of July and August. Son Will Go to Canada.

Columbia, S. C., June 9.—Attorneys for United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman tomorrow will argue before the Supreme Court here a petition asking that the court grant the Senator custody of his two grandchildren, Lucy Dugas Tillman and Sarah Starr Tillman, during the months of July and August this year. The petition was filed Saturday.

The children several years ago were given into the custody of their mother, Mrs. Lucy Dugas Tillman, of Cincinnati, after a long trial in the Supreme Court. Their father, Benjamin R. Tillman, Jr., was to be allowed to have the children during the months of July and August each year.

The petition filed Saturday, it is said, is the result of the younger Tillman planning to go to Canada this summer on a mission for the government. An order has been issued directing Mrs. Tillman to show cause why the plea of the Senator should not be granted.

The children are said to be at Edgefield, S. C., the home of their father.

KNOCK-OUT IN THIRD ROUND.

Bantam Weight Title Holder Loses to "Kid" Williams.

Ringside, Vernon, Cal., June 9.—Johnny Coulon, bantamweight champion of the world, lost his title tonight to "Kid" Williams, of Baltimore, who knocked him out with a stiff right hand punch to the chin in the third round of their 20-round contest. The fighting was all Williams' own from the start. Coulon seemed to be unable to solve the problem of landing anywhere in the short interval of the first two rounds, and was saved at the close of the second round only by the timely ringing of the bell.

Mediation at Niagara Falls Strikes a Snag

UNITED STATES FIRM

In Her Position That New Provisional President Must Not Be Appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs by Huerta.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 9.—The United States is unwilling to extend recognition to a new provisional President if named according to the method prescribed by the Mexican delegates which is that Gen. Huerta would appoint as minister of foreign affairs the man who is agreed on here to head the new government. The Washington government contends if Gen. Huerta is permitted to name the foreign minister who by constitutional succession would be elevated to the presidency even though the selection be made here, such an act would be construed as recognition of the Huerta government.

On this issue, the mediating plenipotentiaries came to a flat disagreement late today.

For more than two hours the mediators and American delegates argued in vain and it was apparent when the conferences ended that what hitherto had been considered a matter of details suddenly had developed a snag. The Mexican delegates had not discussed the point at any length with the mediators when the latter took it up with the Americans. Although the three South American diplomats argued strongly from the Mexican viewpoint, there was good reason to believe tonight that the Mexican delegates would not insist on this arrangement if they found the United States absolutely determined against it.

Regarded as Technicality.

One Mexican delegate insisted that the Mexicans regarded the form of transition as a technicality which could be dispensed with if the American government found it impossible to agree to the method suggested by the Mexican delegates.

The mediators contended with vehemence that the forms of the Mexican constitution should be preserved. The American delegates are understood to have pointed out that the Constitutionalists certainly would not agree to a plan of transition which legalized Huerta's status. Also the American government, it was declared, could not extend what would be tantamount to recognition if Huerta actually appointed his own successor.

There is a possibility that a compromise will be agreed on. Pedro Lascurain, minister of foreign affairs under Madero, could be re-appointed to the cabinet, and succeed to the provisional presidency and then appoint as foreign minister the man agreed on by all parties for the new provisional executive. Lascurain is persona non grata with the Constitutionalists, but it is not believed there would be objection from them to the brief tenure of office necessary to have the transition effected constitutionally.

Predictions that an agreement soon would be reached were abandoned today in quarters hitherto optimistic for a quiet conclusion. The counter proposals of the American government to the Mexican plan have not yet been taken up with Mexican delegates, though they received them from the mediators earlier in the day.

HEAT CAUSES SUFFERING

Southern and Southwestern States Experience Unusually High Temperatures.

Washington, June 9.—Intense heat that caused suffering in densely populated districts continued today throughout that part of the country between the Missouri valley and the Allegheny mountains, yesterday's high records being eclipsed at many places.

Chicago's temperature rose from 92 Monday to 96 today, while in Springfield, Ill., the mercury soared to 100. Other points throughout the Middle West sweltered under similar conditions, Memphis having an official temperature of 96; Nashville 98, and Louisville 96. At Wytheville in Southwest Virginia the record June temperature of 92 was equalled.

Atlantic coast cities escaped the heat wave because of cooling winds. In Washington the temperature dropped from 96 Monday to 74 today.

The weather bureau predicted warm weather in the Middle West with rising temperatures along the Atlantic coast tomorrow.

New Record at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., June 9.—A new heat record for 1914 was registered here today when the government thermometer rose to 95 degrees at 4 P. M. A breeze from the South afforded relief.

Rain at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., June 9.—Rain which began falling in Mobile shortly after noon today broke a drought unparalleled in the history of the weather bureau here which is 44 years old. For 50 days there had been just .41 of an inch of rainfall distributed so as to have been scarcely appreciable at any time. Before noon, however, .76 of an inch of rain had fallen. The highest temperature here today was 95 degrees.

COAST LINE WINS IN LUCAMA DIAMOND CASE

Opinion Filed by Circuit Court of Appeals.

Judgment of District Court at Wilmington is Upheld in Suit by the Government Against Railroad for Jewels.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Richmond, Va., June 9.—In an opinion by Judge Pritchard, the Federal Circuit court of appeals today held that the United States government is not entitled to recover from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company for the value of a quantity of diamonds worth $6,200, which were lost in the wreck of a mail car at Lucama, N. C., in 1904.

The opinion sustains the district court at Wilmington, which ruled that the railway could not be held liable in view of the fact that the diamonds, which were being sent to Havana from Paris, were not mailable matter, and also because the railroad was not aware that the package in question contained such highly prized valuables.

"However," says the opinion, "we deem it proper to state that we do not concur in the ruling of the lower courts that the railroad was not liable for acts of negligence of its agents because it was performing a public function. Having mail in its possession, it was liable, according to contract, for any loss due to its corporate negligence or of any of its servants."

The evidence showed that the railroad had paid a $500 fine imposed by the postmaster general for loss of mail on the wrecked train and that the owner of the diamonds had been reimbursed through an insurance company. Both courts held that the road used reasonable precaution to prevent the looting of the cars and it was not responsible for theft of the gems.

CONSIDER PROHIBITION AMENDMENT IN COMMITTEE.

Every Prospect for Vote on Contested Issue at Present Congress.

Washington, June 9.—Nation-wide prohibition through amendment of the Federal Constitution will be considered tomorrow at a special meeting of the House Rules committee. Members of the committee were reticent tonight, but it is understood they will pass on a revised resolution proposed today by Representative Hobson, of Alabama, to meet opposition to the amendment he submitted some time ago on the ground that it violates State rights.

Prospects of a vote on prohibition at this session have been the subject of general discussion lately and Majority Leader Underwood has expressed willingness to have the question put before the House for a test. He and other Democratic leaders believe that while the Hobson resolution might command a majority it would not receive the necessary two-thirds vote.

The prospects of an early vote on prohibition caused a great flurry about the capital. It generally was conceded that a vote on the bitterly contested question at this session virtually was assured.

TWO REPORTS WILL BE MADE IN SPEER CASE

Sub-Committee is Said to Be Divided

Neither Will Recommend Impeachment of the Georgia Federal Judge—Will Contain Detailed Criticism of Acts.

Washington, June 9.—Two reports, it is understood today, will be submitted to the House Judiciary committee by the sub-committee which investigated charges of misconduct against Emory Speer, United States district judge for the Southern district of Georgia, but neither of them, according to those in close touch with the case, will recommend impeachment.

The majority report will be signed by Representative Webb, of North Carolina, and Fitzhenry, of Illinois, and while it is expected to hold that the evidence as a whole does not warrant impeachment will contain, it is said, detailed criticism of certain alleged acts of Judge Speer. The minority report will be presented by Representative Volstead, of Minnesota, and probably will recommend without comment, that the proceedings be dismissed.

The reports are expected to be submitted to the judiciary committee on Thursday next, and quick action is expected, so that the recommendation of the full committee will come before the House late this week, and the case finally disposed of at the present session.

Representative Webb and Fitzhenry today conferred again over their report, which it is said, will take in each charge in detail and embody 1,200 pages of testimony and nearly 500 pages of comment.

IRISH POTATO CROP CUT VERY SHORT.

Farmers in Mount Olive Section Now Shipping.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., June 10.—Despairing of any further benefits to the present crop of Irish potatoes by rains that may come from now on, the growers here have begun to dig and sell their potatoes at a price ranging from two to three dollars per barrel. The number of barrels that will be shipped from here this season is now estimated to be not more than 50,000, whereas, had there been timely rains, it is believed that the crop would have totaled around 85,000 or 90,000 barrels.

The vines seem to have fruited remarkably well in view of the extremely dry weather, but the average size of the potatoes is, of course, necessarily small.

As was the case with regard to the strawberry crop, so with the potato crop, the growers will sustain heavy losses on this crop.

COLOMBIA RATIFIES TREATY.

Dispute of Long Standing Over Canal Property is Now Settled.

Bogota, Colombia, June 9.—The Colombian Congress in special session today ratified the treaty with the United States by which Colombia is to receive $25,000,000 and certain concessions in the settlement of the long standing dispute between the two countries over Panama.

N.C. VETERANS HEAR MRS. DAISY STEVENS

Gen. Carr and All Other Officers Re-Elected.

AT RE-UNION IN RALEIGH

Governor Craig Invited to Appear Before Them This Morning—Over 800 Present and More Coming Today.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 9.—The North Carolina Division, United Confederate Veterans, in annual reunion here, completed all the business that is to engage their attention at the initial session this afternoon and will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, greet Governor Craig whom they have invited to appear before them at that time, and then march to Capitol Square to take part in the ceremonies of unveiling the Horne monument to the North Carolina women of the Confederacy.

General J. S. Carr presided today. William B. Jones, grandson of Gen. L. O'B. Branch, welcomed the veterans, and the response was by Colonel A. H. Boyden, of Salisbury.

Mrs. Daisy McLauren Stevens, of Tennessee, president-general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, a distinguished visitor, was introduced to the veterans and spoke for 15 minutes, stirring great enthusiasm with a splendid tribute to the soldiers of the Confederacy and the women of the South, especially the mission of the Daughters of the Confederacy in "keeping history straight."

The address by Mrs. Stevens was followed by the election of officers, which consumed only a few minutes, all present officers being re-elected in quick order: General Julian S. Carr, commander-in-chief; Major H. A. London and the following brigade commanders: First Brigade, General P. C. Carlton, Statesville; Second Brigade, General W. L. London, Pittsboro; Third Brigade, General James I. Metts, Wilmington; Fourth Brigade, General J. M. Ray, of Asheville.

The ceremonies for the unveiling of the Horne monument will be the special feature tomorrow, beginning at 12 o'clock.

There are about 800 veterans here tonight and many more expected tomorrow.

Also here as State sponsor for the North Carolina division is Miss Wyatt McKinnon, of Red Springs, and her maids of honor, Miss Allison Pearsall, of Red Springs, and Miss Erwin McGhee, of Wake Forest, who were also the State sponsors for the Jacksonville reunion.

Wagner Reaches 3,000 Hit Mark.

"POP" ANSON, WITH 3,047 NOW WAGNER'S ONLY RIVAL.

Philadelphia, June 9.—Hans Wagner, veteran shortstop of the Pittsburg National League team, today made his 3,000th hit in 17 years of major league baseball. It was a two-bagger off Pitcher Mayer with no one on base in the ninth inning. He subsequently scored Pittsburgh's only run of the game on two outs.

The only other player who is said to have made 3,000 hits in his major league career was Adrian C. Anson, who batted out 3,047 in 22 years.

Cups Race in Open Sea Today.

FIRST OPEN SEA TEST OVER A THIRTY-MILE COURSE—GOOD SPORT.

New York, June 9.—The three-cup class yacht racers Defiance, Resolute and Vanitie were anchored today at the harbor's mouth ready for their first open seat test tomorrow. The race will be over the regular American cup course of thirty miles.

Interest in the race will center largely in the Defiance. The tri-city boat is an unknown quantity. Since a couple of short trials in the sound, her rig, which was the loftiest of the three has been cut materially. This change is expected not only to add to the stability of the sloop, but will decrease her sail rating so that the Vanitie will have to give her nearly two minutes allowance in thirty miles. The Resolute will wait at the bottom of the cup class but will receive less than a minute from the Defiance.

Shamrock Fourth in Trial Race.

FAR OUTDISTANCED THE OLDER SHAMROCK IN HER FIRST ACTUAL TEST.

Southampton, Eng., June 9.—The first actual racing test between Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's new challenger, and his older Shamrock took place today over a thirty-mile course. Shmarock IV finished two minutes and 15 seconds, elapsed time, ahead, but the difference by no means represents the full measure of the challenger's superiority.

Shamrock IV proved much the speedier craft, but nearing the finish the wind almost deserted her, while the older boat, still holding a good breeze, rapidly shortened the gap.

Acording to American measurements Shamrock IV gives the older Shamrock an allowance of four minutes and 23 seconds over a thirty-mile course.

Col. J. Bryan Grimes Makes Inspiring Address.

Diplomas Are Presented to 37 Graduates—Gifts Made to the Loan Fund—The Summer Term Opens June 16.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greenville, N. C., June 9.—Today's exercises which closed the fifth year of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School, opened at 10:30 A. M. with prayer by Rev. B. F. Huske, followed by songs and an address by Col. J. Bryan Grimes, secretary of state, which was a review of North Carolina's part in the building of the nation, a summary of her victories of peace, glories on the battle field, the heroism and accomplishments of her sons, paying tributes to Carolinians at Carthagena, at Alamance, the Wilmington Stamp Act party, at Moore's Creek, Germantown, Brandywine, in the second war with England, the Mexican war and the Civil war.

Colonel Grimes also spoke of the educational, industrial, progressive Carolina of today. Other topics were discussed and the part woman has taken in all good, progressive work, the teacher leading. Rounds of applause greeted his address.

President Wirght presented diplomas and Bibles to each of 37 graduates. In his report he stated that with additional dormitories 122 had been refused for the summer term for lack of room. An average of 250 have been refused each year since the opening.

Mrs. R. L. Carr, on behalf of the Federated Clubs of Pitt county, presented President Wright a check for $125 for the loan fund for students. Fifty-three counties were represented this term. The summer term begins June 16.

Class Day Exercises

Commencement exercises at East Carolina Teachers' Training School began with the class day programme Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. A large audience was present. The exercises were held out of doors on the slopes of the hill. The exercises were unique in that all the classes had been asked to participate in the programme. Miss Bessie Doub, president of the class of '14, welcomed the visitors. Then the attractive programmes of the lower classes were given—the first year academic class, the second year academic class ,the one-year professional class and the junior class. The second part of the programme was participated in by the 37 members of the senior class. The part was opened with the presentation, by the president of the class, of a check for $200 to the school loan fund, for the benefit of needy students, and of several pieces of scenery for use in future dramatics. These gifts to the school were accepted by President R. H. Wright. The class then gave a brief history of its own activities for four years, presenting in song, dance and game, typical features of each year.

The two literary societies, the Edgar Allen Poe and the Sidney Lanier, held special meetings in the evening for the visiting alumnae.

Commencement Sermon

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the annual sermon was preached by Rev. H. D. C. MacLachlan, a minister of the Christian church, of Richmond. The text was "For me to live is Christ". Every person has an aim in life and the question is what is that aim? The aims of pleasure, of self-culture, of duty, were discussed and it was clearly shown that the text could not be changed to read "for me to live is pleasure, or self-culture, or duty," but must remain "for me to live is Christ," and for Christ substitute Love—love in its broadest, truest sense—for Christ is Love, and God is love and in its truest broadest sense, there is pleasure in it, culture in it, duty in it.

The annual Y. W. C. A. sermon was preached by Rev. J. C Wooten, of the Edenton Street Methodist church Raleigh, his text being, "I am ready" A large audience attended these services.

THEATRICAL

At The Grand Theatre.

Upon the immense screen at the favorite Grand Theatre today will be flashed the most pretentious, the largest, the costliest and really the most classical of all film productions. It will be "A Woman's Triumph," the monster four-reel production which Mr. Daniel Frohman, the noted theatrical manager, is presenting with a notable cast selected from the famous Players Company. The film story is a moving picture adaptation from Sir Walter Scott's greatest story, "The Heart of Midlothian," and it is a most elaborate, brilliant and expensive production.

The price of admission at The Grand will be less than charged elsewhere, too. It will be but 10 cents, when 25 cents holds forth at all other theatres.

"A Woman's Triumph" is the tale of a woman's sacrifice for truth and her ultimate success and reward. It is an intense, thrilling story, as all familiar with Sir Walter Scott's tale know full well, and in the moving picture production every incident worth while has been brought forth in superb manner.

In addition to this mammoth picture a Vitagraph comedy will be shown entitled, "Sonny Jim at the North Pole." Sonny Jim tries to find the North Pole. With Shep, his dog, he starts on his explorations. He doesn't find the Pole, but he saves an express train from being wrecked and is now a hero.

In order to give every one a chance to witness this exceptional, brilliant film The Grand will commence the performances at 11 o'clock this morning and continue them until 11 tonight.

"Lucile Love" at Bijou.

Today the popular photoplay house offers for its thousands of patrons, five big reels of motion pictures, the best that can be secured at any price, and among them will be found three feature films, anyone of which would well grace the lead in any picture house.

Today the seventh installment of that great Gold Seal drama, featuring Miss Grace Cunard, "Lucile Love, the Girl of Mystery," will be on the boards, and as this picture is just now getting more thrilling every week, capacity houses will no doubt greet this installment today. The picture opens when she finds herself on the ship, of which Loubeque is master. They are cast adrift, when revenue officers pursue the ship, and she finds herself alone with her enemy on the deep blue ocean. Many and stirring are the adventures before this pair again see land, and the interesting episodes do not cease even then. This is undoubtedly the biggest installment yet, and will hold your attention throughout.

"Our Mutual Girl" missed a connection yesterday, so did not arrive for yesterday's show. Therefore she will be on as an extra added attraction today, in the 12th chapter of her adventures.

ma, "Life Father, Like Son," comes ma, "Like Father, Like Son," comts next on today's overflowing programme, and is a picture well worth the price of admission alone. It's one of those big American features which you see only occasionally, and should not be missed.

The fifth reel on today's bill will be made up of a rousing Crystal comedy, "Dead Broke," depicting the way his creditors pester Mr. DeBroke. He finally, in desperation, plays dead to stall them off, and the situations are amusing and ludicrous to the extreme. Five reals—five cents. Bijou.

THIRD LECTURE LAST NIGHT.

Mr. Haynes' Subject Tonight Will be "The Judgment."

In a lecture last night which was the continuation of two preceding ones, Evangelist Carylye B. Haynes completed his consideration of the prophecy of the eighth and ninth chapters of Daniel, which he began last Sunday night at the big gospel tent at Eleventh and Market streets, using an immense chart to make his meaning clear. Mr. Haynes declared that a proper understanding of this prophecy and its fulfillment makes absolutely certain beyond all question that the Bible is the inspired Word of God and that Jesus of Nazareth was the true Messiah.

Tonight at the tent Mr. Haynes will speak on the subject of "The Judgment."

WOMAN'S COLLEGE AT TRINITY IS ASSURED

Meeting of Alumni and Alumnae Associations

Feature Yesterday's Commencement Events—Mr. Daniel C. Roper and Miss Laura Drake Gill, of New York, Speak.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., June 9.—Features of Trinity College commencement today were the meetings of the alumni and the alumnae associations. Both were attended by record-breaking crowds of the old students, and addresses of an inspiring nature were delivered by Mr. Daniel C. Roper, first assistant postmaster general, to the men, and by Miss Laura Drake Gill, of New York, to the women.

Mr. Roper devoted a large part of his speech to a discussion of the changes in the college and the country since his graduation 26 years ago, which he declared were evidences of finest prosperity. He urged the graduating class to devote their talents to the service of the community, and said the real test of a college degree was how much good the graduates did a community.

Miss Gill discussed Co-ordinate Education, which was especially interesting in view of the fact that the women of Trinity are at present engaged in a campaign for a women's college.

The alumnae with the commercial organizations of Durham, have pledged $25,000 for this college. The trustees have accepted this offer, and the woman's college is an assured thing. This is the biggest item of commencement up to the present time.

The sermon to the graduates today was preached by Dr. Henry Churchill King, famous preacher and writer, and president of O'Berlin College.

"It's All in a Day's Work" was the subject and the sermon was a simple entreaty to graduates to work at the tasks of life without kicking out of the traces.

The other contestants were James Cannon, Jr., of Blackstone, Va.; J. R. Davis, of Shelby, N. C.; B. W. Ruark, of Southport, N. C. The judges were Dr. Fred Peacock, of High Point; Rev. Thomas A. Durham's Great Sermon

The annual sermon to the graduating class of Trinity College was delivered to seventy-two Seniors and an audience of near 2,000 gathered in Craven Memorial Hall by Reverend Plato Tracy Durham, presiding elder of the Charlotte district, and graduate of Trinity College of the class of 1895.

The eloquent young preacher did not take a text from the Bible and preach a sermon from it, but he took as his subject the relation of the church to the college, the relation of education to religion, and from this subject he preached a sermon and made a lecture that thrilled the soul of every Trinity man and woman with pride and love for their college. The sermon was a masterpiece in itself, and the truth that it conveyed was such as to convince all who heard that religion and education should and do go hand in hand.

"The ages that have brought to the world the greatest of men have brought the things which are hardest to free ourselves from," he said. The French Revolution brought legality and fraternity, and brought also that spirit of irreverence which has at last reached the church and laid its hand on the mighty foundations of God. I have respect for the genius of the age, but this irreverence is present whether we find it among the Industrial Workers of the World, despoiling the altars of God, or in the blunt declaration of Mr. Carnegie that the churches are not to be trusted with the intellectual advance of the world.

The speaker replied to the charge that the church binds intellectual wrists with menacles by saying, "Do you graduates feel any limitations on your thoughts? To be a heretic in the church of God is not a purely intellectual affair; the heresy of soul is infinitely worse. In the name of the mother of freedom, I resent the statement that the church of God limits you".

The minister told how the Trinity professors, scientists and philosophers, have gathered with the students in their religious life, have taught them and prayed with them. "If all visions of my own college life shall fail me," he said, "I hope that I may keep that of a Senior, one of the greatest who has gone from here, at the altar of God seeking the way to God."

He told how the teachers lived with the students and how Washington Duke prayed that the life and teachings of Jesus might find expression in the life and works of Trinity College. "I would rather that this handsome group of buildings would be torn down stone by stone, and that the college bell should be taken from its place, and the birds of night make it their habitation than that Trinity College should repudiate the purpose for which it was built."

In closing, the speaker appealed to the young men and women who are just leaving the institution and those who remain to remember the Christian ideal in the making of the institution.

After the close of the sermon by Mr. Durham, President Few spoke briefly to the graduating class, and then made the announcements for the rest of the week.

Wednesday morning, at 10:30 a. m., the graduating exercises and commencement address by Dean Le Baron Russell Briggs, LL. D. Harvard University, will take place.

At sunset, 7:23 p. m. Wednesday afternoon, the Senior Class will lower the flag.

The reception in honor of the Senior Class will be held in the East Wing of the Washington Duke Building Wednesday evening from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock.

$25,000 for Woman's College.

The Board of Trustees of Trinity College met yesterday afternoon and heard the annual report of President Few and discussed a number of matters of no public importance.

The only item of very great interest which resulted from the meeting was the offer of the Durham people to pledge $25,000 for the new woman's college. All committees at work on this proposition had a final meeting and reported that they had raised $17.-500 and had enough more in sight to make up $26,000. The members of the alumnae association have asked tht members of the board that they be allowed to pledge the other $5,000.

The meeting of the trustees and the closing exercises of Trinity Park school were the only commencement events of yesterday.

OF EXCITING ADVENTURE

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 9.—John G. Smith, a veteran of the Confederacy who commanded a company of the Eighth Georgia cavalry in the war between the States, is the narrator of adventures more exciting than any experienced by a Southern trooper in this section just 50 years ago. Capt. Smith's story is told in the State organ of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, published in Kinston, and has aroused much interest.

Capt. Smith had been in command of a detached troop in the country around Kinston for some time before Brig. Gen. Martin ordered him to go as a spy into the Federal stronghold of Newbern. On foot the troop commander made his way into the Federal lines, subsisting on raw sweet potatoes until he reached the town. He encountered a man en route who Smith presumes was advised of his coming, although they never discussed the spy's business or broached it. "Do you happen to know a man named 'David'?" asked Smith. The stranger replied: "Is this Jonathan?" then, with a twinkle in his eye, "Yes, and Jonathan loved David better than he did his own sou."

The sympathizer gave Smith considerable information and left him to pursue his course to Newbern alone. The Confederate officer made his way into the Northern garrison. He found his way into the commanding officer's quarters in a dwelling and had just announced himself by a fictitious name when a young woman whom he had known in Kinston entered and recognized him, haling him by his right name. Smith, pistol in hand, fled into the darkness outside. He made his way to the Federal line on the edge of Newbern in a thunder storm, and by a flash of lightning located a sentinel and surprised him. Threatening the sentry's life, Smith secured from him information concerning the direction to the place where he would get past the Northern outer lines, etc. Two hours afterward the cavalryman was fortunate enough to witness a skirmish between Confederate and Union forces, and joined the men of his side, successful in the scrimmage.

Capt. Smith was supported into the Confederate camp by a man on each side of him to prevent him from falling asleep from sheer fatigue after several days spent under high tension and without rest. His hair had turned gray and was in such an unfortunate condition that his friends did not recognize him.

LENOIR OFFICERS PULL OFF A DARING STUNT

Invade Lumber Camps and Arrest Four Escaped Convicts

(Special Star Correspondence)

Kinston, N. C., June 9.—By a bit of work acclaimed by the officers of Onslow county as sheer daredeviltry, Sheriff A. W. Taylor and Convict Superintendent Bryant Taylor, of Kinston, Sunday morning with the assistance of Deputy Sheriff Daughtridge, of Richlands, and two citizens invaded two lumber camps in Onslow and dragged forth four escaped Leneir county convicts and a suspect. The investment of the camps was about 3: a. m., and in the darkness was more or less perilous. The Lenoir officers drove 50 miles in an automoble to reach Camps Perry and Pender, two remote hamlets with a combined population of around 600. Seldom before have officers of the law invaded the camps in search of criminals, for it is regarded by the local officers as risky business.

Sheriff Taylor recently had word from that section that one or two men wanted by him had been at Ft. Barnwell and were headed for the Onslow camps. When he and the posse arrived after an all-night drive they rushed in upon the negroes and warned them to stay within the shacks. Armed men were stationed on three sides, and the Taylors searched the shanties. Only at one place was there a show of resistance. A door was slammed in the officers' faces. They promptly kicked it down and covered the inmates with their revolvers.

PRESIDENT WILSON NOT COMING TO RALEIGH TODAY

Daniels May Be Present But Not To Speak

Raleigh, N. C., June 9.—The widely circulated report, published in a few papers in North Carolina and elsewhere, to the effect that President Wilson and Secretary Daniels would be here tomorrow and participate in the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the monument to the women of the Confederacy, is erronious, President Wilson will not be here. Secretary Daniels is expected probably to be here, but his name does not appear on the programme of the day's exercises.

The principal address will be delivered by Dr. D. H. Hill, president of the A. & M. College. The General Assembly last year passed a resolution inviting President Wilson to attend the unveiling ceremonies and make an address, but he found it impracticable to accept the invitation ....

The Day of Fake Advertising is Passing

As a matter of self-protection, as well as protection of the public, we are downright glad to see the dawn of honest advertising.

The store that has honest merchandise at right prices need not hesitate to tell the truth.

For Example, we never had the least difficulty in advertising Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes for men. They contain so much that is superaltively good that the plain truth about them is the simplest kind of a story.

But after all they tell their own story better than cold type can tell it. If you, Mr. Man, are not familiar with that story and the clothes that tell it, don't you wait another day to hear it.

A photographer at a picnic is a big man for once in his life.

The New Haven road should cheer up. It might have been worse if Wilson had not been elected.

Somebody is always starting something with somebody else, and that is the reason it is not dull always.

Quite a number of people blame everything on Secretary Bryan, but if everything should turn out all right they would deny him the credit.

Yes, Miss Cora, it is a fact that men who are actively concerned in the political situation want the biggest political situation they can get.

To us, one of the funny things in politics is that by the time a campaign winds up, the candidates are satisfied that each is the kind of a man that it would never do for the people to trust.

A man who is in the opposition sees only the opposite side of a thing. The other side may look good to others but he does not want it to look good to him.

The Hon. William Randolph Hearst is called "a political Hessian," but when he gets ready he calls people just as many names as they call him.

The necessary qualification for a candidate for governor in South Carolina is that he must be prepared to gnaw off the head of any candidate who tries to gnaw off his.

When a man thinks he isn't very guilty he wants justice, but when he has been doing something radically wrong he is afraid of getting all the justice that he knows he deserves.

"Social Justice!" Where have we heard those words before? We certainly have heard something of the kind and we confidently expect to hear them repeated early and often during the next two years.

There are eleven candidates for governor in South Carolina, but we don't know how many candidates for governor there are in Eastern North Carolina. Western North Carolina is a mere spectator this time.

Several of the candidates for governor in South Carolina expect to "carry the State," but at the same time the revised rules for the campaign should make sure that none shall carry a gun.

Since fancy apples are retailing at six and three-quarters to seven and one-half cents a piece in Wilmington, if North a North Carolina aple grower had 10,000,000 Buckingham apples he could sell them for at least $300,000.

Brother Sherrill, of the Concord Tribune, says: "It is significant that North Carolina is progressive without being wild and irresponsible." North Carolina's natural gait is not running away, except when it comes to beating everybody to the head of the table.

Among the few advantages which men have is that they don't have to sit down on the floor to put on their hosiery, and necessarily never know what it is to have to bother with curling irons when they are getting ready to go out on dress parade.

We are not having "hard times" like we had in 1907. We remember well that the whole country was up against it in 1907, but whoever was President at that time has forgotten all about it, or thinks the people have no recollection after a lapse of seven brief years.

Pinchot is running for United States senator in Pennsylvania, but his opponents declare that "he is not from Pennsylvania." In North Carolina during reconstruction days an officeseeker who wasn't from North Carolina was called a carpetbagger, but we don't know the various kinds of things the Pennsylvanians are calling "Pinch." All native-born North Carolinians have a right to seek office and that accounts for the fact that most of them do so at the first opportunity.

THE WILMINGTON-TO-CHARLOTTE HIGHWAY

Northwest township, Brunswick county, has $15,000 in good roads bonds for sale, and just as soon as they are sold work will be commenced on the modern highway which that progressive township is to construct from Brunswick river bridge, opposite Wilmington, to Acme. The road will be 17 miles long and the engineers estimate that a good road can be constructed inside the bond fund. It will constitute a link in the Wilmington-to-Charlotte Highway, and the road will be completed long before Wilmington and New Hanover come across with that bridge over the Cape Fear, to connect the city with the Northwest road.

You can talk about your progressive people, but Northwest township heads them. All but six of the registered voters went to the polls, and every vote cast was plumped for the road. The men of Northwest have reason to be elated over their own unanimity, and when the news came to The Star about the results of the election, the telephone wire fairly tingled with the enthusiasm that was back of the message from beyond the two rivers. The citizens of Northwest were enthusiastic for the road because they know what it means for their township.

Well, it means such a development that Northwest has never before experienced, and from a sparcely settled region we expect to see it develop rapidly into a thickly settled agricultural and trucking section. The usefulness and adaptibility of the lands will become available and consequently farm values will increase and opportunities will enlarge. Rural travel will be increased and automobile travel will go in all directions by way of Northwest. There will be no more stalling of machines, and from an isolated section of Brunswick, Northwest will become the garden spot of Brunswick, in close touch with Wilmington, and open to automobile travel to the seaside from scores of towns. If the road is finished by next fall, Pinehurst and Southern Pines tourists can come here by steamer, and motor to those popular Winter resorts.

When people are convinced about the future that lies ahead of them they get together and do just like those progressive citizens of Northwest. The unanimity and enthusiasm of Wilmington's close neighboros just beyond the Cape Fear and the Brunswick rivers means as much to their township as will the seventeen miles of modern highway that they are to construct right away.

There need not be any trouble about disposing of those bonds right away, for Northwest is solid, and values will soon be increased many times beyond the present assessed valuation in that portion of Brunswick county. Brunswick is making us glad these times, and the progressiveness prevailing from Southport to Navassa means that we are going to work both sides of the Cape Fear for all that we can get out of it. We will knit together in a closer union to do things for Wilmington and Southport, or for Southport and Wilmington, which ever way it comes.

By the way we must not forget to say that Northwest has put new life in the Wilmington to Charlotte Highway. Wilmington rejoices at it and certainly it means a great deal for this city.

DEATH OF A USEFUL WOMAN.

Profound sorrow will be felt throughout North Carolina over the death of Miss Sue May Kirkland, lady principal of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro. Aside from the grief of relatives and personal friends, her death is a bereavement to the State, which, in a large sense, she served with signal ability and fidelity. For twenty-two years she served as principal of the State college for women and much of the success of that splendid institution is due to her fine capability and intelligent oversight along the line of her important duties.

Miss Kirkland has been in Raleigh since the recent commencement and died suddenly there at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Crow, on Monday afternoon. Her health had not been good for some time and it is painful to note that "overwork" is attributed as one of the causes of her breakdown. She actually died for the State—for the young women of North Carolina—and there is no wonder that wherever in the State there is a graduate or student of the State Normal there is one who loved and admired the cultured woman who was so intimately linked in their lives.

Miss Kirkland was a woman of magnificent gifts and rare culture, as is fully attested by the years of trust placed in her at one of the State's leading educational institutions. As teacher, executive and exemplar she filled a place that few may hope to so ideally fill as her successor, but if she can be emulated in any particular, the State Normal will be fortunate indeed.

The death of Miss Kirkland reminds us that even a woman can attain such a useful place in the State that her death can be recorded as a loss to North Carolina.

Sir Thomas Lipton is having a great deal to say about how he is going to come over after the American cup and get it. He believes his challenge yacht, Shamrock IV, is going to make a trailer of the defender of the cup, but the American yachtmen are not going to let him talk them out of that cup. Who put the lip on Lipton?

BETHEL ANNIVERSARY.

Fifty-three years ago today was fought the battle of Bethel, the first general engagement of the War Between the States, in which about 1,300 Confederates not only defeated, but put to inglorious flight, nearly 5,000 Federals, many of them regulars from Fortress Monroe.

Of the Confederates engaged, North Carolina enjoys the distinction of having contributed more than three-fourths of the number, the remainder being Virginians whose gallantry was conspicuous throughout the struggle.

Considering the disparity of forces and the small number of casualties on the Confederate side, the battle of Bethel was one of the most remarkable of the war. The Confederate loss was one killed (the brave Wyatt, of the Edgecombe Guards), and about fifteen wounded, while the Federal loss was at least 400 in killed and wounded. The Federals were panic-stricken and fled precipitately for their base at Fortress Monroe; but the Confederates, having no cavalry, were unable to follow in pursuit, and, consequently, no prisoners were taken.

Three of the Bethel survivors are now citizens of Wilmington, Messrs. James H. Taylor, Sr., L. Leon and Wm. H. Bernard.

HUERTA SAVED THE DAY

Huerta put one on us when he withdrew his order for the blockade of the port of Tampico. Our government was somewhat at sea over the new situation which threatened the success of the efforts at mediation, and to say that Huerta's action has served to dispel apprehension at Washington is mildly expressing it. It really eased up a sense of consternation at Washintong as well as throughout this country.

This country desires the restoration of peace in Mexico by peaceful means and not by the means of war on a practically exhausted sister Republic, hence any turn of affairs that relieved the new crisis was bound to give great satisfaction at Washington.

Huerta can be thanked for it. It should not be said that he saw what was coming and dueked. He really seems to be tired of anarchy in Mexico, and when he saw that his order for the blockade of Tampico meant the inevitable interference of the United States warships and the consequent destruction of all chances of further mediation, he had the discretion to withdraw his blockade order. The two Mexican gunboats left Tampico, and there is one act for which Huerta deserves praise.

Of course, we lacked the patience to permit a blockade of Tampico and we were about to throw the fat in the fire, but Huerta saw that it was up to him once more and did the right thing for himself and Mexico. It is still up to General Carranza, for Huerta seems now to be willing for peace.

Richmond has a sinking fund. When a city has a sinking fund it shows that some kind of financial idea is entertained by somebody connected with the municipal government. If a State or a city had a sinking fund, properly maintained, all bonds would be paid off at maturity instead of being taken up by refunding bonds. When you hear about a refunding bond issue, it is evidence of poor financial management.

Uncle Joe is waiting in a crouching position for 'em to make a break in the direction of trying to get his goat. He hasn't had any fun in nearly three years and is just itching for somebody to intervene in his district and put his foot in it after the manner of one not knowing when it is loaded.

South Carolina paragraphic snipers continue to fire across the line into North Carolina territory. They should all be required to attend the North Carolina Press Association's convention at Wrightsville Beach, June 24 to 26, and be compelled to salute the flag or bow to the inevitable.

THE MONDAY STAR.

The esteemed Wilmington Star has joined the ranks of the seven day papers. The world keeps a-moving seven days in the week, and the paper that gives a consecutive record of what is going on must, perforce, be issued seven times a week. None of us works seven days a week by preference.—Greensboro Daily News.

The Wilmington Star announces that it will hereafter publish seven days a week, instead of six, the first Monday paper coming today. The Star is following the other morning papers of the State in this move, just as might have been expected. We trust this splendid paper will continue to prosper and serve so well.—Salisbury Post.

Joe King is going to be lonesome soon. The Wilmington Star has bolted and will issue a Monday morning paper. This leaves the Durham Herald, the Newbern Journal and the Winston-Salem Journal in a class by themselves. Joe will have to go fishing on some other day than Sunday should he get in the swim. He must be opposed to working on Sunday. Fishing, you know, is not working.—Greensboro Record.

With customary enterprise the Wilmington Star has become a seven-day paper, its first regular Monday morning edition having been issued yesterday. The Star took a postal card referendum among its subscribers in Wilmington and found that they were overwhelmingly in favor of the Monday paper. The Star announces that as a result of its Monday paper it hopes to add to its influence for good in its community. The Star goes into the Monday field "reluctantly." Having had an opportunity to try it out for nearly three months we assure The Star that getting out a Monday paper is not altogether as disagreeable as it looks when viewed from afar.—Raleigh News and Observer.

CURRENT COMMENT.

It might not have been on the programme for that Third districa convention to nominate a candidate for Congress, yet it did it and we do not see what the unsuccessful candidates are going to do about it.—Durham Herald.

The primary is usually considered a means of preventing the people's will being thwarted in the elections. According to the action of the Democratic convention our elections for State and National officers need purification, but our county elections are so immaculate that they need no safeguarding whatsoever.—Greensboro News.

It is significant that North Carolina is progressive without being wild, and irresponsible. The State convention turned down woman suffrage and the initiative and referendum and recall. It adopted the primary law. Now and then, in Washington, one hears some Western Congressman say that the South is far behind the times. The truth is, North Carolina is ahead of Wisconsin and other progressive States, but she has not told the world about it.—Concord Tribune.

DROUGHT IN NEWBERN SECTION CONTINUES

Crops in Craven, Pamlico, Carteret and Onslow Suffer

(Special Star Correspondence)

Newbern, N. C., June 9.—Reports Continue to reach New Bern of the damage being done by the drought which has prevailed over this section since the first part of May. Rain had been predicted for the latter part of last week and the farmers have been living in hope that this would materialize, but so far this has not been the case. Plant life all over Craven, Carteret, Pamlico and Onslow counties is being injured.

Particularly are Irish potatoes suffering and it is said that the crop has already been considerably decreased on account of the lack of moisture. Cabbage shipments have also been noticeably small and this fact is also attributed to the extremely dry weather. The forecast for this week is for dry weather and this has caused much anxiety on the part of the farmers and truckers.

MEETING OF HEALTH BOARD

Monthly Session Last Night—To Hold Special Meetings During Summer —Monthly Reports.

With Chairman Willard presiding and all members present, the monthly meeting of the Board of Health was held last evening at the offices of the health department in the court house, at which time the monthly reports of the different departmental officers were received and a number of other matters given consideration.

The board took steps to urge the county solicitor to take prompt action in cases that had been referred to him by the health department with reference to failure on the part of persons notified to connect with the sewerage system, as is required by law, and in all other cases involving violations of the sanitary laws and the possible production of typhoid fever.

It was also decided to hold special meetings during the summer on the fourth Tuesday in each month at 5 P. M., the meetings to be attended by all the departmental officers.

The county health officer was authorized to procure the necessary filing cabinets for the records of the sanitary survey that is now being made, and also a card index for the births and deaths that are on record in the office.

The various monthly departmental reports were read and the different features discussed by the members of the board. A number of other minor matters were also given consideration.

Dr. Nesbitt's report as submitted to the board, is as follows:

Report of Dr. Nesbitt.

"Gentlemen: The operation of our department under the possibilities supplied in the budget which was recently adopted can be expanded in several important particulars and plans are now being made for the establishment of this additional public service. Part of this work has already been inaugurated.

"The employment of the director of the laboratory for his full time will enable us to give to the citizens of the city and county a much more perfect and complete laboratory service. Mr. Catlett during the past spring availed himself of the opportunities offered in the laboratories of the United States Marine Hospital to prepare himself for the diagnostic and pathologic work that will be required of him. About six weeks ago we began the gradual expansion of this feature of our work. Sterile tubes and swabs are on hand at drug stores on the north, south and central portions of the city for the use of the medical profession in making diagnosis of diphtheria. At the same time we announced that we are prepared to make microscopic examinations of sputum for tuberculosis, to make exhaustive and thorough microscopic and chemical analysis of urin, to make microscopic examinations of faeces to determine the presence of intestinal parasites, and to make blood counts differential and otherwise. In addition to the above we have within the past two weeks begun making blood cultures for the diagnosis of typhoid fever, and it is our plan to further expand the diagnostic function of the laboratory to its fullest practical utility. We are greatly indebted to Dr. G. H. Wheeler, of the United States public health service, for his assistance to Mr. Catlett.

"Under the existing circumstances we will be enabled to establish a more complete supervision of the local milk supply. Score cards are being prepared covering the physical condition of the dairy farms, the health of the herds, the health of the employes, the methods used in handling and delivering milk, following the plan outlined by the Department of Agriculture. In addition to this not less than four samples of milk will be taken from the delivery wagon of each dairy during the month, and these samples will be tested in the laboratory as to their cleanliness and food content. The milk from each dairy will be graded and classified on the score card and laboratory results. The milk furnished to citizens will be classified as A B C D and E. Class A milk will include all milk produced and handled under conditions imposed by milk commissions for certified milk. Class B milk will include all milk from dairies which conform to the regulations of the Board of Health and whose milk constantly conforms to the required standards as to nutrient value, with a constant bacterial count of less than 50,000. Class C milk will include milk produced under the regulations imposed by the Board of Health with the standard nutrient value and a constant bacterial count of less than 100,000. Class D milk will include all milk which has a bacteria count constantly of more than 100,000 and less than 200,000. Class E milk will include milk as may be produced which, because of low food value or uncleanliness, is unfit for human consumption in the raw state. ch dairy will be classified each th and the classification will be ished in the daily papers for the nation of the public at large. In tion to protecting the citizens a disease the dairymen who go he trouble and expense of produc- clean and wholesome milk will public recognition for their en- rise and the citizens will be pro- ed from the injustice of paying price for clean wholesome milk n inferior milk is served.

"It is planned to further elaborate work of the laboratory to include constant supervision over the ice am supply of the city. This work l be inaugurated within the coming ek and the results will be publish- in the press. Plans have also n made to examine local food sup- s for adulteration.

"The employment of a plumbing in- ctor will release the engineer of department from the work of se inspections which has occupied of his time, and will permit the partment to take up immediately supervision of the sewer system d sewerage disposal in the suburbs d on Wrightsville Beach. It will o make possible the sanitary su- rvision of the public and private wer systems in the city of Wilming- n. A number of appeals have come this office with reference to drain- e problems in various parts of the unty. These matters will receive tention as quickly as possible.

"The additional sanitary policemen ovided for in the budget will be

YACHT CLUB SCHEDULE

Racing Season at Carolina Yacht Club Will Begin June 20—Method of Scoring.

The racing season of the Carolina Yacht Club for this summer will open Saturday afternoon, June 20, when at 5 o'clock the starting gun will be fired for the first race in the Class A series for the Jones-Walters trophy and the club trophy, awarded to the winners of first and second places in this series each year.

The open race with no handicaps, to the winner of which is awarded the club flag, will be sailed over the club course July 4, starting at 5 P. M.

The complete schedule for the racing season, as announced by the regatta committee, composed of Mr. J. S. Brown, chairman, and Messrs. J. T. Munds and W. M. Parsley, is as follows:

Class A.

June 20, 5 P. M.—High tide 6: 30 P. M.

July 18, 4:15 P. M.—High tide 5:05 P. M.

August 1, 4 P. M.—High tide 4:45 P. M.

August 15, 2:30 P. M.—High tide 3:15 P. M.

Open.

July 4, 5 P. M.—High tide 6 P. M.

The regatta committee have adopted the following method of scoring points for the Class A boats for this season, and there will be no other points than these given in this class.

The winner to receive three points; second place to receive two points and third place one point. This method will be strictly adhered to.

The Class A races are always attended by keen rivalry, as well as the open races, and this season will prove no exception to the rule. The yachtsmen of the club are busy now going over their boats and getting everything in readiness for the opening of the season, and a spirited series of races is being looked forward to.

Though the above races are the only ones that are formally scheduled for the season, there will in all likelihood be a number of informal practice contests among the members, as is usually the custom.

GREAT MEETING OF U. T. C.

Wilmington Honored With Grand Council Officer.

Wilmington representatives, who during the past week attended the annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Carolinas of the United Commercial Travelers, are returning from the meeting and are enthusiastic in speaking of the great meeting. The Wilmington representatives were especially gratified at the election of Mr. Lynn H. Burnett, one of the live wires of Cape Fear Council No. 374, of this city, as grand sentinel. Mr. Burnett has served the local council for a number of years as secretary and there is no more popular "knight of the grip" in the Carolinas than "Lynn" Burnett, as he is intimately known by the boys on the road.

E. A. Hughes, of Durham, was elected senior councilor, and the 1915 convention will be held in his city. Henry R. Barrow, of Spartanburg, was elected junior councilor; John Call, of Asheville, conductor; Thos. H. Poe, of Greenville, page.

All the representatives speak in the highest terms of the hospitality of Greenville and say unhestiatingly that the convention was one of the best in years. A feature of the entertainment was a banquent given the travelers by the Greenville Chamber of Commerce at which covers were laid for 500.

Among the Wilmington people represented at the meeting were Mr. Burnett, who was accompanied by Mrs. Burnett and son, L. F. Burnett; Mr. L. H. Mallard, who was accompanied by Mrs. Mallard and their little son, J. H. Mallard, Jr.; Mr. A. B. Croom, Jr., W. J. Clemmons and W. K. Toot. Mr. and Mrs. Burnett and Mr. and Mrs. Mallard and their party returned by Atlanta, reaching Wilmington yesterday after a delightful visit to the Gate City.

PROBABLY ACCIDENTAL.

Italian Arrested as Man Who Shot Conductor I. B. Rackley.

Romeo Vincenzo, an Italian, was arrested last night as the man who shot and slightly wounded Conductor I. B. Rackley Monday night on a street car on Castle street, between Fifth and Sixth. Vincenzo was brought to the police station last night by an employe of the Tidewater Power Company, and the warrant was served on him at the hall.

Vincenzo does not speak English, but through an Italian shoemaker of the city, who acted as interpreter, the officers brought out the story of the shooting, which, they state, appears to be entirely accidental. The Italian stated that as he arose to leave the car a pistol which he was carrying in his belt was about to drop to the floor when he grabbed it, accidentally pulling the trigger. In addition to wounding Conductor Rackley slightly, the bullet also inflicted a slight wound in Vincenzo's leg.

Vincenzo gave bond for his appearance before the Recorder this morning.

P. Patelo, a well known Greek merchant of the city, yesterday stated to The Star that if the shooting was done by a Greek, as was first reported by the police, he would be glad to aid the officers in bringing the man to justice. He declared that he did not believe that the shooting was done by a Greek, as he knew all of them to be law-abiding citizens. The later events prove that he was right, and justly his faith in the citizenship of the members of his nationality.

ISRAEL AGAIN RELEASED.

His Company Arranged Bond Through Baltimore Trust Concern.

B. Israel, the young traveling man who was arrested last Saturday on a charge of violating the prohibition law, released from jail Sunday on bond furnished by Mr. Charles Finkelstein, and re-arrested Monday when he failed to show up in Justice Harriss' court, was again released from jail last night at 8 o'clock, on bond arranged by the company for which he travels, with a Baltimore trust company, of which Messrs. Wilder & Metts are the local agents.

The bond is in the sum of $250 and it was approved by Kenan & Stacy, local attorneys for the house which Israel travels for. The case will be heard before Justice Harriss this morning at 11 o'clock.

LAST WORD FROM DR. FOSTER

Pastor of First Baptist Church Makes Final Reply in Controversy With Mr. Haynes

Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in a communication to The Star, makes what he states is his last word on the controversy with Mr. Carlyle B. Haynes, who has been conducting a series of meetings in a tent at 11th and Market streets, and who in yesterday's paper replied to some remarks relative to his work made by Dr. Foster in his sermon Sunday night. Dr. Foster's communication is as follows:

Mr. Haynes' letter would be ignored but for the fact that the real issue has been dodged and the Evangelist has placed himself in the attitude of one who is being persecuted.

I was thoroughly in sympathy with him in his anti-cigarette fight. After he had made several speeches at the schools and had thus gotten the ear of the people, he planned a great anti-cigarette meeting to be held at the "Chautauua tent" on Sunday afternoon. It was his object to have the children of the Sunday schools come to the tent in a body. (He says Mr. Huntington suggested this). He was thus to get not only the schools, but the churches to give their tacit endorsement of his work, which was to be followed up by a tent meeting, the ultimate aim of which was to make an attack upon Sunday observance and to claim that we should worship on Saturday.

I was asked to speak on the "Moral Effect of Cigarette Smoking" at this meeting. I had left word with my wife to telephone that I would make the talk. It happened that I was talking with a man in his office and he showed me the card Mr. Haynes had asked to have put in his window. It set forth the subjects for a two weeks meeting. As soon as I saw them, I knew what the third week would be, and at once told my wife if he phoned to say I would not make the talk. I then went to the Y. M. C. A. and found that the secretary had refused to have anything to do with the meeting if held at the tent. It was changed to the Y. M. C. A. building. I had on Thursday or Friday refused to take part, yet my name appeared in the Sunday morning paper as one of the speakers. Unless I am greatly mistaken, the little end of the wedge was the anti-cigarette movement. The big end of the wedge is the attack upon the Christian Sabbath. If Mr. Haynes does not seek to show that we ought to worship on Saturday instead of Sunday, I am going to apologize for that part of my statement. It would be much harder for me to remain silent than to apologize if I have made a mistake.

Mr. Haynes' answer to what was said about his method of getting the ear of the people I quote from his letter:

"As to the charge that Dr. Foster makes concerning the anti-cigarette work which it has been my privilege to do in Wilmington, that this was used as a cloak to conceal an attack on the Christian Sabbath, which I have not made, the charge is so unkind and so utterly unworthy of a Christian gentleman, to say, nothing of a Christian minister, that in kindness to him, I let it pass unnoticed and unrebuked."

When a charge is true and damaging and unanswerable, it is the fashion to say, "I let it pass unnoticed and unrebuked" and to charge that it is "unworthy of a Christian gentleman, etc." If the facts as stated by me are true, the action of Mr. Haynes is unworthy a Christian evangelist. If they are not true, I am ready to make amends.

It is true he gained the ear of the people by his anti-cigarette fight. Wait and see if he does not make his attack upon the Christian Sabbath as I have said he would.

I quote further from Mr. Haynes' letter:

"The most serious mistake made by the good doctor is the breaking out of that spirit of intolerance which was supposed to have died with the Dark Ages. He seems to have proceeded on the sole idea that nothing now is to be permitted to live at all unless it is in accordance with his own ideas and views. Everything with which he can not agree must be stamped out with the utmost aversion and suspicion. Such a spirit was taken for granted centuries ago, but in this age of liberty its recurrence is a thing to be wondered at. I would recommend to the good doctor a study of the principles of the gospel of Christ."

In my sermon Sunday night I said Mr. Haynes had a right to preach whatever doctrine he wanted to and that the only criticism I had of him was his method of getting before the public. This cannot be considered intolerance.

Just at this point, I thought "Perhaps I have done the man an injustice'. So I immediately went to see him at his home. Before he came into the parlor I saw on the wall his certificate of ordination into the Seventh Day Adventist church. After introducing myself, I said, "Are you a Seventh Day Adventist?". He said, "Yes".

"Are you going to preach that Saturday is the proper day to worship and not Sunday?".

"I don't know." Further he said, "Of course I will have to preach on the Sabbath now since your sermon" I replied, "Your announcement that you were going to preach on the Sabbath came out on Friday before my subject was unannounced."

He said "The main objection to what you have done is the intolerance exhibited in the attack you made upon the doctrines of the church." These are as near as I can recall his words. If not the exact words, they are expressive of his meaning. I replied, "Aren't you going to make an attack upon the Roman Catholic church?". He said, "What?".

"Aren't you going to make an attack upon the Roman Catholic church?"

"I am going to tell some truths about it", he replied. My answer was, "That is all I did. I told some truths about your church".

I submit the matter to public opinion. If it is intolerance for me, on one Sunday night in a year, to tell the truth which may be construed into an attack upon Seventh Day Adventism, is it not intolerance in Mr. Haynes to go from place to place making his attacks on the Roman church? I am not finding fault with him for preaching against the Roman Catholic church or any other church. My point is this, that those who are the most

GARDEN SHOT EXHIBITION

Atlantic Coast Line Car to Again Make Tour of Fairs in Northern and Western States.

The varied fruit and farm products of "Nature's Garden Spot", that section of the sunny South traversed by the Atlantic Coast Line railway, will again be exhibited the coming fall in the larger fairs to be held in the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York and perhaps at a number of the important fairs in the West.

As was the case last year, this exhibition will be displayed in one of the largest steel cars of the A. C. L. and the exhibit will be a fine advertisement of this section. Mr. Guy A. Cardwell, agricultural and immigration agent of the company at the general headquarters here, and Mr. Wilbur McCoy, holding a similar position with the A. C. L. at Jacksonville, Fla., will be in charge of the exhibit and the car is expected to start from Wilmington on August 15th. The six States traversed by the Coast Line will contribute of their finest products for this "exposition on wheels," so to speak and as the car is stocked and operated entirely at the expense of the railway system, it is hoped there will be a general co-operation of the people in repeating the success of former years.

Many of the fine things raised in the Wilmington section, and through the State of Florida will be included and it is safe to say that no finer exhibition will be seen anywhere. A copy of the following circular has been sent out to the farmers and fruit growers of the A. C. L. section:

"The railroads are spending thousands of dollars annually in advertising the resources of the Southern States.

"The Atlantic Coast Line Agricultural Department is putting up an exhibit of farm products, vegetables, fruits, tobacco, cotton, grains and forage of all kinds, grown in Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama, to be shown this summer and fall at a number of the large fairs in the States of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, in sections not so favored by nature, climatically, as is 'The Nation's Garden Spot.'

"A representative of the Agricultural Department of the Atlantic Coast Line has just returned from a trip through the East and North where space was contracted for at eight mammoth fairs, and he reports great interest manifested, and that the exhibit will be viewed by more than a million people.

"Handsome illustrated literature descriptive of the climate, soils, crops and resources of the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama, will be freely distributed.

"This kind of advertising has real educational value. It reaches the people, and it should result in bringing good homeseekers into our midst.

"The success of this undertaking will, in a measure, depend upon the co-operation received from the farmers, and others interested in agriculture. If you raise or know of anyone raising products suitable for this exhibit, such as native forage, corn, alfalfa, tobacco, small grains, good samples of fruits and vegetables, etc., you can help by communicating with the Agricultural and Immigration Department of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, Wilmington, N. C.

"It will require a large express car to transport this exhibit. Time of departure from Wilmington, N. C., about August 15th.

"Now let's pull together and help advertise our locality."

Y. W. C. A. OPENING

"House Warming" Monday Night—Public Cordially Invited

Arrangements are being perfected for the formal opening of the handsome Y. W. C. A. home on North Fourth street Mondoy evening at 8 o'clock. The opening will partake of the nature of an old-fashioned "house warming" to which the general public of Wilmington is invited, male as well as female, and regardless of membership in the Association. The home has been attractively remodeled and the work has already begun under the careful supervision of Miss Clark, the secretary.

The opening is in charge of the House Committee, of which Mrs. W. H. Pemberton is chairman, and the Entertainment Committee, of which Mrs. Walter P. Sprunt is chairman. There will be music and light refreshments but the evening will be delightfully informal and it is hoped to have a very large attendance.

MARRIED LAST EVENING.

Miss Josephine Rogers Bride of Mr. J. B. Chadwick.

The ceremony was witnessed by quite a number of the friends and relatives of the young people. They will make their home here, where both have many friends.

An interesting fact, in connection with the marriage, is that Justice Evans performed the marriage ceremony of the groom's parents more than 23 years ago.

KING AND QUEEN OF ENGLAND ARE MUCH ANNOYED BY SUFFRAGETTES

THE KING and QUEEN OF ENGLAND

London, June. 9.—The birthday festivities for King Georage, who is forty-nine years old, marred by the "furies," as the militant suffragettes are now called. London is tired of their outrages. On the other hand, the "wild women" claim they will continue their crusade until the vote is granted. They consider themselves martyrs in the cause of woman suffrage. The king is closely guarded, and he has ceased his daily rides in the parks. The ueen is deeply alarmed, it is known. She is against the suffragettes, and she fears they will attack the king in person.

COMMENDS CAUT. ANDERSON.

Former Wilmingtonian Mentioned in Admiral Fletcher's Report.

In his report of the officers and men who distinguished themselves in the taking of Vera Cruz, makes especial mention of Capt. E. A. Anderson, a former Wilmingtonian, now in the United States Navy.

In Admiral Fletcher's report, as appearing in Monday's New York World, the following reference is made to Captain Anderson:

"Capt. E. A. Anderson, U. S. N., commanded the Second Seaman Regiment. In marching his regiment across the open space in front of the Naval Academy and other buildings, he unexpectedly met a heavy fire from riflemen, machine guns and one-pounders, which caused part of his command to break and fall back, and many casualties occurred among them at this time. His indifference to the heavy fire, to which he himself was exposed at the head of his regiment showed him to be fearless and courageous in battle."

New Auto License Law.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan has received from State Treasurer B. R. Lacy, a letter calling his attention to the fact that the new automobile license law went into effect June 1st, and asking that it be strictly enforced. The law provides that no person, firm or corporation has a right to sell or offer for sale an automobile, without having with him or them at the time of selling or offering for sale, a license or duplicate license. Sheriff Cowan states that the law will be enforced here.

Gen. James I. Metts, commander of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, is at the head of a Wilmington delegation of old soldiers attending the State reunion and monument unveiling in Raleigh this week. The reunion this year is said to be one of the best in a long time. General Metts was yesterday reelected as Brigadier General of the Third North Carolina Brigade, U. C. V.

Case Dismissed.

The case against Mr. D. P. Green, charged with false pretense, tried before Justice Bornemann Monday, was dismissed. Mr. Green was charged by W. H. Payton, colored, with "doing" him in a horse trade by misrepresentation, but the evidence did not support the charge. Following the decision, a satisfactory adjustment of the trade was arranged between the two parties.

What You Cannot See

THERE are many things about a suit that you cannot see—their presence or absence is only manifest after long wear.

Those things you assume to be in your clothes if you buy them of a reputable house.

You are safe in dealing with a firm that has a reputation for Quality Merchandise, for such a reputation takes a long time to build and is a very precious asset and, like most precious things, is easily destroyed.

We have spent years of time and thousands of dollars in building our business reputation as Value Givers in Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods.

And because we know that the slightest misstatement would bring that reputation down like a house of cards, you may rest assured that when we say our David-Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes, our Hats, our Haberdashery offer the greatest values in Wilmington, at their prices, we say it advisedly and only after careful investigation.

NAVIGATION AND PILOTAGE

Official Report of Proceedings of Special Meeting of Commissioners Yesterday.

There was a special called meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage held yesterday for the purpose of reconsidering the recent cancellation of license of the former pilot boat "Lilese," which license was cancelled at the regular monthly meeting of the board on June 3, 1914.

Present were Chairman James Sprunt, Commissioners William St. George and H. G. Smallbones, and Clerk L. Brown McKoy.

A full investigation of the matter disclosed the fact that Pilot I. S. Davis, in whose name the "Lilese" was licensed, had not fully understood the requirements of the board in reference to pilot boats and that he thought he was quite within his rights in allowing the "Lilese" to be used by his friends as a pleasure boat, upon the pilotage grounds or elsewhere, so long as he received no remuneration from them, regardless of whether there was a pilot on board or not. The board's requirements, however, for obvious reasons, are that pilot boats shall not go out to the regular pilotage cruising grounds, unless they are properly manned with at least one licensed pilot on board, as otherwise the presence of regular numbered pilot boats beyond the bar would be misleading to vessels seeking pilots. The following extract from the minutes of the meeting of the board held on March 4, 1914, explains the position of the board in this matter:

"Application of Pilot I. S. Davis for pilot boat license and number for the gasoline launch "Lilese" was granted, with the understanding and requirement that this launch is to be used for no other purpose than that of piloting, and during its use for this purpose it must be under the exclusive and continuous control of Cape Fear pilots and in every respect subject to the requirements of the board."

Inasmuch as it appeared that it was Pilot I. S. Davis's desire to continue to use the boat "Lilese" as a pleasure boat for his friends, in addition to using it for pilotage purposes, the board was obliged to refuse to renew its license; and the commissioners desire to impress strongly upon the holders of all other pilot boat licenses that the spirit of the ruling above referred to must be very closely observed.

The clerk stated to the commissioners that, in consequence of his prospective removal from the city, he was forced to tender his resignation; and, upon motion of Commissioner Smallbones, it was ordered that his resignation be accepted, with the cordial thanks of the board for his very efficient and satisfactory service as clerk of the board for seven years past.

The chairman stated that he regretted very much that there was not a full board present to vote on the question of Mr. McKoy's successor. He stated that he thought this appointment should go to one of the older citizens of Wilmington, who, after an active and capable business experience, had in a measure retired from the activities of commercial life. He further remarked that one of the most honored members of the board in years past, and one who was chairman of the board for a term and who served with great acceptability, was the late Capt. R. G. Rankin, of the firm of Rankin & Martin, well known merchants of Wilmington; and, recognizing this record and that of his son, Capt. John T. Rankin, he desired (Commissioner St. George being in the chair) to nominate Capt. John T. Rankin as clerk of the board for the unexpired term of Mr. McKoy. Commissioner Smallbones seconded the nomination and Capt. John T. Rankin was unanimously elected. The board ordered that the present salary of the office be continued, but that inasmuch as Mr. R. S. McClelland had been acting very capably as clerk pro tem., during the occasional absences of Mr. McKoy from the city, that Captain Rankin be privileged to employ Mr. McClelland to assist him in case of need.

In answer to an inquiry, the chairman stated that no reply had been received from Maj. H. W. Stickle concernig the shoaling beyond the bar, reference to which was made at the last meeting.

Inasmuch as questions with reference to the duties of the harbor master have arisen from time to time, and as it is desirable that the board discuss certain matters with the harbor master at the regular monthly meetings, for the purpose of information and regulating the movement of ships in port, it was ordered that the harbor master be requested to attend all regular meeting of the board.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

L. BROWN McKOY,

event. An event in the life of Israel to be commemorated. Fifteen hundred years after, the Jews would repeat this formula.

III. The law of the Sabbath. Ex. xxxv-2, 3. " Kindle no fires on the Sabbath" Further laws were in force—Not to travel over two thousand yards on the Sabbath. The penalty for breaking the law was that the offender must be stoned to death. If we are still under the law, the penalty is still in force. According to that, the Seventh Day Adventists would have to stone each other to death, for God commands that the whole congregation stone the offender.

IV. How long was the Jewish Sabbath to exist? It began with the beginning of the Jewish national life and naturally must end when the Jewish nation loses its nationality. But in Galatians three, Paul says "The law was added because of transgression until the seed should come". The law is done away at the crucifixion of Christ. "We are no longer under the law but under grace".

V. The Jewish Sabbath was a type. They had eight Sabbaths, one on each Saturday, two during the Feast of the Passover, one at the Feast of Weeks, four in the seventh month of the year.

VI. Any authority for a change? The Talmud says, "Christ commanded it". We do not accept the Talmud and have no proof that Christ commanded it. I mentioned several Old Testament types that would indicate that Sunday was to be the Christian Sabbath. (Will not take space for these)

We read "There being a change of priesthood, there must of necessity be a change of law". Then we read of Jesus meeting with the disciples on Sunday. John XX—19 says, "The same day when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled because of fear of the Jews, came Jesus, etc". They were assembled there because it was the first day of the week. In the 26th verse of that same chapter we read, "And after eight days again his disciples were within etc." Why again the first day of the week?

In the Acts of the Apostles we have a record of where Paul gathered the church at Troas for worship and the observance of the Lord's Supper on Sunday. Paul's letter to the Corinthians written twelve months before his visit to Troas distinctly sets apart the first day of the week for worship and the collection for the poor saints at Jerusalem.

Eighty years later Justin Martyn tells how Christians gathered on Sunday for worship.

If it is intolerance for me to have preached a sermon in defense of the Christian Sabbath, which is one of the bulwarks of our Christian civilization, what of the intolerance of the man who comes here with the purpose of speaking against this Sabbath and of making a set attack upon Roman Catholicism?

I repeat, he has a right to do both. But stick a pin at that question of intolerance.

I beg pardon for so long a communication and assure you that this is my last word on the subject.

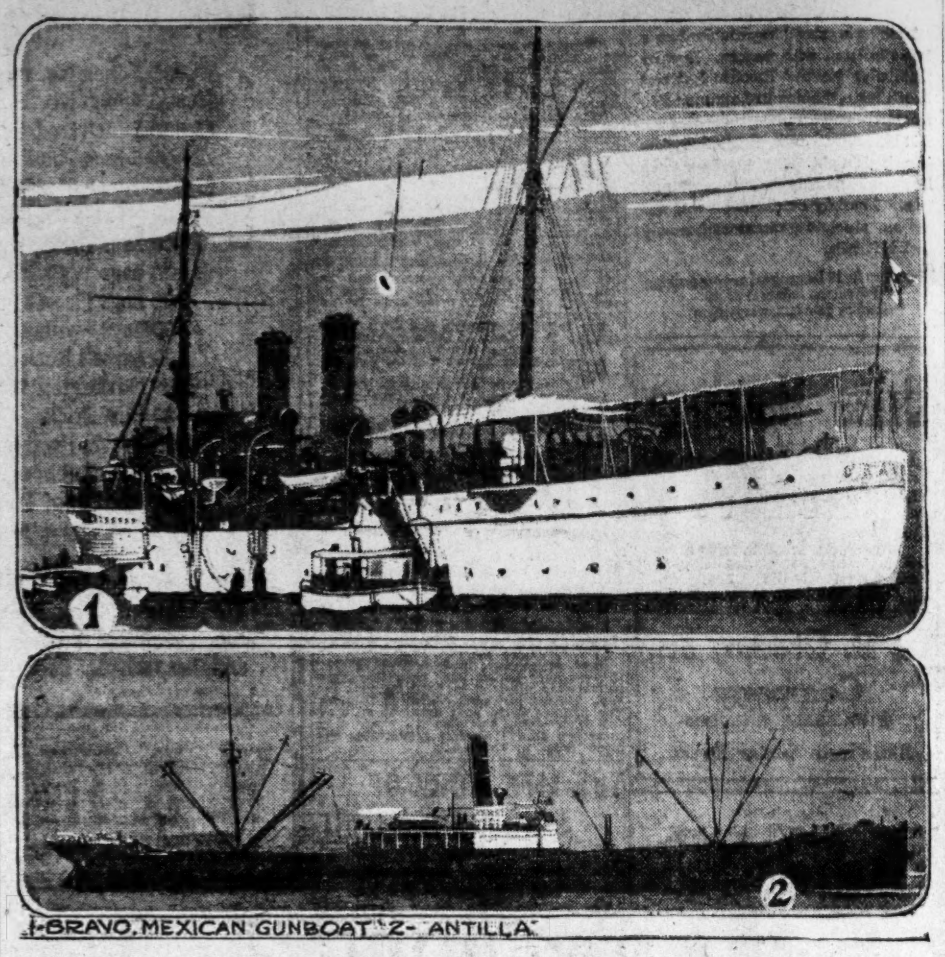
WILL AMMUNITION CARRIED BY ANTILLA TO TAMPICO BE USED AGAINST AMERICANS



1-BRAVO, MEXICAN GUNBOAT 2- ANTILLA

The Antilla is the Ward line freighter which sailed from New York with ammunition for the Mexican rebels, her destination being Tampico. The Bravo is pretty nearly the whole navy. Huerta called off his proposed blockade of Tampico to prevent the Antilla landing. It was feared that the Antilla affair would imperil the peace mediation. If mediation fails and war is declared between the United States and Mexico shortly this ammunition may be used against Americans.

When a man is tried by the Court of Public Opinion, he cannot receive a fair hearing for the reason that he is unable to call his most important witness—his conscience. SACRIFICE OF HELPLESS LITTLE CHILDREN SADDEST PART OF ST. LAWRENCE HORROR

Sacrifice of one of the saddest features of the awful St. Lawreence river disaster, in which the Empress of Ireland was rammed by the collier Storstad and sunk with nearly 1,000 souls, was the loss of the little children. The pictures gives mute evidence of the sacrific of the helpless tots. It shows sailors carrying the coffins of some of the child victims from the Lady Grey to the dock at Quebec. The caskets are so small that the sailors can carry them under their arms. Some of these little children died in their mothers' arms in the river of death when the frantic women sprang from the sinking ship.

IS CAPTAIN ANDERSEN TELLING TRUTH? HIS WIFE STICKS TO HIM

CAPTAIN ANDERSEN and WIFE—PHOTO © 1914 AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Quebec, June 9—When the court of inquiry into the Empress of Ireland disaster meets two of the most important witnesses will be Captain Thomas Anderson of the Storstad and his wife. Andersen's story backed up by his wife, differs directly from that told by Captain Kendall of the Empress. Each lays the blame on the other. Captain Andersen has been under the fire of public condemnation but he claims his account of the accident will be sustained.

placed on duty almost immediately in the suburbs and in the county.

"I desire to report that all mosquito-breeding pools and ditches, which are at present a source of danger, have been oiled. This work has been done both in the city and the suburbs and will be repeated at frequent intervals throughout the summer.

"I desire to report that in a general way the efficiency of the slop collection and scavenging has been greatly improved during the past month. New equipment has been purchased and since June 1 when the privy tax ordinance became effective the scavenging work has been done in accordance with condemnations. The superintendent of scavenging is in a serious difficulty with reference to the can closets. The supply of cans has been greatly depleted through wear and tear and the wagons for hauling the can have not as yet been replaced. The law requires receptacles to be used in closets not connected to the sewer, and our experience while doing the scavenger work showed that the cost of scavenging a can closet is less than one-third the cost per closet of scavenging a surface closet. It is not only important from the sanitary standpoint that closet cans or receptacles should be used, but it is important to the public from the economic standpoint. It would be good business for the city to supply these cans as each can would pay for itself in saving and scavenger expense in a few months of use and with proper handling these cans will last more than two years in constant use.

"Respectfully submitted,
"CHAS. T. NESBITT,
"County Health Officer."

The following is the report of Dr. Thos. B. Carroll, meat and milk inspector, for the month:

Dr. Carroll's Report.

"I made 29 inspections of dairies and dairy farms. The sanitary condition, health of cattle and attendants were good. The bacterial counts and butter fat tests for the month are as follows:

"Echo farm, bacteria per cc, 18,000; butter fat, 4.1. Kline, bacteria per cc, 20,000; butter fat, 4.2. Cape Fear, bacteria per cc, 40,000; butter fat, 4.5. Gates (Warren), bacteria per cc, 400,000; butter fat, 5.2. Barlow (Warren), bacteria per cc, 500,000; butter fat, 3.8.

"I made 688 examinations of fresh slaughtered meats during the month, as follows: 296 cattle; 295 sheep; 97 hogs, with 10 cattle condemned as unfit for food purposes."

Report of Dr. Thames

Dr. John Thames, the assistant county health officer, reports 30 visits to indigent sick inside the city during the month, and two outside the city, with 50 permits issued to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, 41 from the city and nine from the county. One case of typhoid is reported for the month in the city, and one at the United States Marine Hospital, a case taken from the U. S. revenue cutter Seminole, contracted in Columbus county. Quarantine cases at the end of the month were 17 for whooping cough and two for measles inside the city, and four for whooping cough in the county. During the month 59 fumigations were made. The sanitary conditions of the various camps, the county home and farm are reported as very good for the past month, and it is reported that the jail has been thoroughly screened and is kept clean by means of frequent scrubbing and the free use of disinfectants. The plumbing is reported as needing attention.

The report of the chief of the sanitary police shows 14,454 inspections made during the month, 3,683 closets condemned and ordered cleaned; 136 complaints. Closets cleaned according to report of Mr. Holton, the city superintendent, 3,903.

The report of the plumbing inspector shows 18 permits issued, 321 inspections, 162 connections and 222 fixtures.

The financial report for the month shows $2,766.80 on hand May 1, with disbursements of $1,765.96, leaving a balance in bank of $1,000.84.

Vital Statistic Report.

The vital statistic report shows 63 births during the month of May, including five still births. Sixty-seven deaths are reported, of which nine are non-resident deaths. Of deaths under five years there were 32, seven of which were white and 25 colored. The temporary death rate per thousand is as follows: White, 10.8; black, 33.6. Total, 22.1.

Proof That the Wearing of Furs and Velvet Hat Do Not Make for Happiness—Lesson That Jennie Took to Heart.

The Commuters' Crochet club, which assembled every morning in facing seats on the 7:55, had become a familiar sight to their fellow-commuters, who seldom paid much attention to them and didn't even know that Sadie's bed-spread was one-third done, or that Mary had given up in despair and returned to the less arduous task of making wash-rags, relates the New York Post.

But if the other commuters had forgotten the crocheters, the latter were still very much interested in their fellow-passengers and had worked out an elaborate scheme of relationships and probable characteristics to fit each one. There was the stout old gentleman with the gold-headed cane who, they were sure, was a banker, with a fair young daughter at home, who was to wed the tall dark young man who sat with her father every morning. There was the thin, tall, angular woman, with eye-glasses, who was the principal of a school.

The commuters wished that the intellectual looking man with iron-gray hair who sat in back of her would fall in love with the principal, who looked as if she needed a change from schoolroom atmosphere, but as yet there seemed to be no imminent danger.

On this particular morning, as soon as they had drawn out their needles and set to work, Maude noticed a new face among the passengers.

"Look at that girl with the black furs and velvet hat," she whispered. "Hasn't she the nicest face?"

Four pairs of eyes were directed toward the girl in question.

"She isn't only pretty, she has a beautiful face, I think," said Sadie. "And I can tell you why it's beautiful, too. It's because she's happy. I've been thinking a lot about that lately, and looking at people, and I've decided that if a person is very happy she is apt to be good-looking. If every one would try a little harder to be cheerful, the human race would get handsome."

"Oh, you make me tired," said Jennie. "People can't be happy all the time, and I'm just sick of having people keep talking about it. What have I got to make me so everlastingly happy, I'd like to know? Of course I am perfectly well, and I have enough to eat and wear, but I work all day long and am dead tired every night, and I don't see why I should be so awfully happy. It's different with that girl over there with the furs and a velvet hat. You can see by looking at her that she doesn't have to dip chocolates all day long, like I do. She ought to be happy."

The train stopped and the girls put away their work and started out into the aisle.

"Oh, look," whispered Maude, and the others, turning, saw the girl in velvet and furs draw a crutch from under her seat and limp out into the aisle. Her face had grown white and drawn with the pain of walking, and her breath came in short gasps.

It was Jennie that helped the girl off the train, and walked along with her, before joining the crocheters again on the ferry. Then she stood and kicked the side of the boat before speaking.

"She goes in to sing to crippled children," she finally blurted out. "She can never be any better. Her nurse dropped her when she was a baby. She told me she was 'very happy' because the crippled children always looked forward to seeing her. She makes me feel pretty small." And with a last embarrassed kick at the side of the boat, Jennie set out to dip chocolates.

No Extradition Possible.

The case of Bud Musgrove was called before the Clay county court. Counsel for Bud rose, divested himself of a sigh, and addressed the court.

"Yo' honor," he said, "this case cahn't be tried, if it please you-all."

"These cases must be tried hand-running, counsel," admonished the court. "Why cahn't Bud's be brought befo' the bar?"

"If it please the co't," answered counsel, "Bud's in another state."

"Justice requires that Bud be brought hyeh," ruled his honor. "He must be extradited. What state is Bud residin' in?"

"There ain't nobody who can extradite Bud right away, yo' honah," informed counsel. "He's in a state of inebriety, seh."—New York Evening Post.

Natural Defects Overcome.

Lessing once said that "if Raphael had been born without arms he would nevertheless have been a great painter," and we are reminded of the queer phrase by the appearance on the stage of a Berlin theater of an armless artist. He challenges our wonder and admiration, writes a man who saw him, and his performance is a great lesson to those who hesitate in the face of ordinary obstacles. The pictures which this genius produces are made with pencil or brush held by the teeth and guided by the head's motions. Landscapes, portraits and still life pictures are made in this way, and while they may not be in the academy class they are more wonderful than many works which aspire to that distinction.

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist.

The expectant mother if she hasn't heard of this splendid embrocation is probably not reading the papers to much extent. And if she does it is a happy thought to send hubby to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, penetrates to the fine network of nerves beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strain so often involved during the period of expectation. And particularly to young mothers is this remedial application of inestimable value since in thus keeping the muscles firm but pliant it enables them to go through the ordeal without laceration of the epidermis often the case when this gentle attention is neglected.

"Mother's Friend" is highly recommended by a host of women. Write Bradfield Regulator Co., 408 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

Eye Glasses Should Go

Says New York Physician

Here is His Free Prescription

"Many who wear glasses could dispense with them. Only ordinary care is necessary. The eyes of old and young should be properly bathed night and morning. This is more important than cleansing teeth," says he and then he goes on to say:

"The following treatment is worthy of fullest confidence. It is scientific, immediately effective and positively harmless to the weakest of eyes. Go to any drug store, get a tube of Optona tablets, dissolve one in a two-ounce bottle of pure water and bathe the eyes two to four times daily. What is generally known as eye strain will soon be banished, while the muscles and nerves are permitted to perform their normal functions. It helps diseased eyes and it keeps good eyes healthy; it is absolutely harmless in every way; does not smart or burn, has a wonderful effect on granulated lids and is especially recommended for dull, bleary or glassy eyes. It helps all eyes and should be in every home for use in emergency."

The following extracts are from letters received from users of this prescription:

"I used Optona one week for a cold in my eyes; it did me a great deal of good."

"My eyes have been failing for years. I am sure Optona is doing them good and shall continue its use."

"Have only been using Optona a short time. My eyes are improving wonderfully."

"I find Optona very satisfactory and recommend it wherever I find an opportunity. I find it very soothing."

"I've been benefited by Optona and intend to follow the treatment."

"Have been using Optona for about three months and it has greatly improved my sight."

"My eyes have been sore for several years; were red and inflamed. Used everything recommended and gained no relief. I had my eyes examined and wore glasses for six months. I read of Optona and thought I would give it a trial. Am glad to be able to state I got satisfactory relief, and have not worn my glasses since. I feel my eyes do not require them."

Many others have made similar reports. If your eyes bother you, have the above prescription filled; it may do wonders for you. Do not become a victim of neglect. You perhaps value your eyes more than any other organ, therefore it's your duty to protect them. This free prescription has given relief to thousands.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

Good, healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of the proper food, together with natural action of the organs of assimilation. Nine people out of ten in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Samose, the great flesh-forming food and health restorer. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets, and see how your weight increases from week to week.

Samose does not contain a particle of starch or pepsin, nor is it any nauseating preparation, such as is usually recommended to make people fat, and which does not build up good, healthy tissues. SCATTERED SELLING IN COTTON

Favorable Average of Weather and Better Crop News Inspired Yesterday's Market.

New York, June 9.—The favorable average of today's weather and crop news inspired scattered selling in the cotton market, but offerings were well enough absorbed on comparatively small setbacks to give prices a generally steady undertone, and the close was steady at a net loss of 1 to 5 points.

The market showed considerable firmness during the earlier trading. After opening at an advance of 1 to 4 points, prices sold a couple of points under last night's closing figures, as a result of liquidation promoted by the forecast for continued fair weather in the Western belt, but the market soon firmed up on foreign buying, reports of a better demand from domestic trade sources, and local support. The advance carried active positions about 5 to 8 points net higher. There was some little broadening of demand through wire and commission houses as prices worked higher, but the buying movement was checked by the showing of the weekly weather report which indicated that crop conditions had improved during the past week in both Eastern and Western sections of the belt. The bearish view of this statement did not create any general or aggressive selling, but prices gradually eased off during the afternoon and closed at about the lowest point of the day. A traveling expert reporting on crop conditions from New Orleans said that two-thirds of Texas and one-third of Oklahoma was in bad shape, but that farmers were rapidly working out their fields, and that the balance of the crop averaged good to excellent. There were also more favorable advices from central sections of the belt, but in some localities where the weather conditions were least complained of, boll weevil were reported numerous.

COTTON REGION BULLETIN.

Local Showers Greatly Improve Outlook in Some Portions.

Washington, D. C., June 9.—The Cotton Region Bulletin issued today for the 24 hours ending at 8 A. M. says:

"Local showers greatly improved the outlook in the central and eastern portions of the cotton belt. The plants made good progress where sufficient rains were received but large areas suffering from lack of moisture and late planting are still making slow progress.

"In the western portion of the belt warm, dry weather greatly improved conditions in Texas and Oklahoma. Much needed cultivation progressing rapidly; conditions somewhat improved in Louisiana but general rains are needed in that State and Arkansas.

"Over the truck growing regions of the South some relief was afforded by local showers, but large areas still suffering from lack of moisture with permanent injury in many places.

"Warm weather prevails throughout the belt. A few scattered showers are reported."

Distances: English channel to Calcutta via Cape of Good Hope, 13,000 miles; via canal, 8,000; New York to Calcutta via Cape of Good Hope, 14,560 miles; via canal, 9,500.

Chinese Flat Noses.

"The Chinese mother," the ethnologist explained, "carries her babe in a sack on her back. The babe's nose is pressed against her. Day in and day out, all through its babyhood, the little thing's soft and malleable nose is pressed against its mother's back. Hence it is no wonder, is it, that the Chinese are a flat nosed race?"

Turned Them Away.

It was morning in Grassville. An old citizen and a young one met and this conversation took place;

"How're you making out at the opera house?"

"We turned 'em away last night."

"G'wan."

ANOTHER SMALL ADVANCE

In Stock Market Yesterday While the Trading Showed Indifference to Outside Influence.

New York, June 9.—Another small advance in stocks occurred today. While traders continued to show indifference to outside influences, sentiment was cheerful and the inquiry was broad. The good impression of yesterday's crop report was strengthened today by the weekly weather review. Unofficial statements that the freight case would be quickly decided again did service as a bullish factor.

The opening was irregular, but the market quickly moved upward. The ease with which quotations were advanced on comparatively small buying indicated a scarcity of stocks, but bulls were not aggressive and in the last half of the day trading was decidedly slow.

The outflow of gold continued at an unusually rapidly rate. Engagements for Europe today amounted to $5,500,-000 making $10,500,000 in the first two days of the week and a total of $30,-000,000 for the movement. The same indifference, however, was manifested today as heretofore.

Bonds were steady although there were unusually wide movements among speculative issues. Virginia debt certificates slumped 12 1-2 on the Supreme court ruling which permits re-opening of the case, involving another delay. St. Louis and San Francisco refunding fours fell 1 5-8 to 70 a loss of 5 points in a week. Total sales of bonds par value $2,560,-000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

GOOD SENSE.

Good sense is a fund slowly and painfully accumulated by the labor of centuries. It is a jewel of the first water, whose value he alone understands who has lost it or who observes the life of others who have lost it. I think no price too great to pay for gaining it and keeping it, for the possession of eyes that see and a judgment that discerns.—Charles Wagner.

FAMOUS CONTRALTO GRANTED A DIVORCE

Verdict in Favor of Madame Schumann-Heink

Letters Written by Rapp to Mrs. Dean Are Not Denied and Play Big Part in Case—Charges Are Not Proven.

Chicago, June 9.—Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink wds today granted a divorce from her husband, William Rapp, Jr., whose ardent epistles to Mrs. Christine Dean, of New York, were the sensation of the suit.

The jury which heard the case had been instructed by Superior Judge Sullivan to return a verdict in favor of the famous contralto.

The divorce hearing was marked principally by the emotional letters written by Rapp to Mrs. Catherine Dean, of New York, and repeated intimations that the defense would prove allegations which would oset the conduct charged against her husband.

No attempt was made to contradict the authenticity of the letters credited to Rapp and the evidence of the defense failed to show moral obliquity on the part of the opera singer.

Mme. Schumann-Heink showed her joy at the verdict and declared that she would leave immediately for the Bayreuth Wagnerian Festival in which she is to take a leading part.

MR. H. H. FORD BEREAVED.

His Mother Passed Away at Mullins Monday.

The many friends of Mr. Herbert H. Ford, of the United States engineer's office here, will regret to learn that his mother, Mrs. C. T. Ford, died at her home in Mullins, S. C., Monday, and was buried at Miller's cemetery nearby yesterday, Rev. Mr. Stevenson, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. S. R. Hope, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Rev. Dr. Rufus Ford, a brother-in-law, delivered a brief eulogy.

Mrs. Sarah Williams Ford was born near Barnesville, Robeson county, in October, 1844, and was, therefore, in her 70th year. She was married to Dr. Cornelius Townsend Ford in October, 1884. She is survived by a twin sister, Mrs. E. J. Alford, a brother, Mr. Thompson Williams, of Barnesville, and another sister, Mrs. Avery Floyd, of Nichols, S. C., as well as her husband and seven children.

A peculiarly sad circumstance is that her husband, Dr. Ford, has been at the point of death for the past ten days, and although slightly improved during the last day or two, is still very ill.

Mr. Ford's brothers and sister, Mrs. G. W. Taylor, of Dallas, Texas; Mrs. P. H. Edwards, of Fort Worth, Texas; Mrs. R. B. Hester, of Raleigh; Mrs. Herbert Peele, of Elizabeth City; Mr. Julian B. Ford, of Armory, Miss., and Mr. Alexander L. Ford, of Savannah, Ga., have been with him at his father's bedside for the past week and were present when their mother's unexpected death occurred.

SUGGS GETS SIX MONTHS

Negro Sentenced In the Recorder's Court Yesterday

Dave Suggs, Colored, was found guilty in the Recorder's court yesterday morning of an assault with a deadly weapon upon his sister, and was sentenced to six months on the county roads. The shooting occured at the negroes home some days ago, when the man fired a shot at his sister. Fortunately for her, the bullet glanced off her skull, inflicting only a scalp wound. When Suggs was arrested by Constable Davis, who found him in bed, the negro refused to dress, and Constable Davis brought him to the city minus the outer portions of his attire.

Only one other case was considered in the recorder's court yesterday. W. B. Carter, colored, charged with fraud in connection with a contract, was given until June 30th to fulfill the terms of his agreement and make good the amount involved.

SAINT MARY'S SCHOOL FINALS

Forty-Sixth Annual Commencement Exercises Monday Night

The 46the annual commencement of Saint Mary's School, this city, in charge of the Sisters of Mercy, was held on Monday evening, a large attendance having been present and the pupils having acquitted themselves most creditably.

The exercises began with an opening chorus, "Hard Times in Boyland," which was followed by "Little Grandmas in Grandma Land", a recitation, dance and song, by the little girls, who were exceptionally clever in their executions. Then came a very creditable military drill by the boys and the presentation of an amusing comedy in one act, entitled "A Quiet Afternoon in a Flat." The characters were as follows:

Mrs. Robert Filmore .....Catherine Bremer.
Mrs. Brown .....Annie Quinlivan
Children .....Rose Allen, Loretta Miller, and Nellie Sheehan.
Spanish Dance ..Catherine Zulawsky

A chorus, "America, My Native Land", by the school, concluded the comedy which was splendidly presented.

These exercises were followed by the distribution of diplomas and medals and an address by Rev. Father Dennen, of St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, which was listened to with much interest and pleasure. The music accompanimnts were played by Mrs. J H. Niggel, Jr., pianist.

In the award of medals and distinction the Knights of Columbus gold medal for good conduct, was awarded to Master Paul Bersen, while graduation honors were conferred on Miss Catherine Bremer.

Diplomas conferred by the A. N. Palmer Co., of New York, for proficiency in pennmanship were awarded as follows: To Miss Catherine Bremer, Miss Marguerite Sheehan, Miss Elizabeth Sweeney, Miss Annie Quinlivan.

In this connection St. Mary's was highly complimented in the following letter from President A. N. Palmer, of New York, under date of May 31st:

"Dear Rev. Sister: I take pleasure in announcing to you that the Gold Medal contest, which has just closed, finds your school the winner of the 'Diocesan Medal' in your diocese. One hundred and seven gold medals will be awarded. I congretulate you and the Sisters, also the pupils on the splendid enthusiasm and interest manifested and the splendid results in Palmer Method that have ben secured. I trust this will give encouragement to you and your pupils to sontinue this interest in the Palmer Method, and further promote and establish good writing in your school with the help of the Palmer Method of business writing.

"Sincerely Yours,
A. N. PALMER, PRESIDENT".

CHANNEL BASS RECORD BROKEN AT TOPSAIL BEACH.

Mr. T. P. Lovering Lands 47 1-2 Pound Drum—Big Catch Reported.

Several channel bass records for this section were broken last week-end by a party of Wilmingtonians spending a few days at the club house of the Topsail Inlet Fishing Club, at Topsail Inlet. Mr. T. P. Lovering established a new record for the heaviest fish ever landed on rod and line in this vicinity, beaching a monster that tipped the scales at 47 1-2 pounds and measured 47 inches in length and 27 1-2 inches in girth.

The party in two days' fishing landed 22 drums, averaging in weight 32 1-2 pounds each. Out of the entire catch only three fish weighed less than 30 pounds.

All of the fish landed, with the exception of the record-breaker, as soon as weighed were returned to the water alive, this custom prevailing in accordance with an unwritten law observed by the members of the Topsail club.

Mr. Lovering's catch exceeds the former record for the heaviest fish in this section by 3 1-2 pounds, the former record of 44 pounds having been established the last four years in succession, each of the four fish having been landed at Topsail Inlet.

While the previous record of a best day's catch was not equalled, the same consisting of 22 fish landed in one day averaging 25 pounds each, caught June 11, 1911, this catch from the standpoint of average size was better by a large margin.

Those composing the party were Dr. J. I. Campbell and Messrs. Wm. F. Tomz, R. E. Calder, R. R. Bridgers, Ed Holmes and T. P. Lovering.

POLICE REST ROOM

Amusement Rendezvous Being Fitted Up at Police Station

As a place for rest and recreation for members of Wilmington's "finest" when they are off duty and have no place especially to go, the portion of the City Hall basement formerly occupied by the Health Department, on the North side of the main entrance, is being fitted up as an assembly room. One pool table has ben installed and another will likely be added a little later, while there will be well furnished reading room tables and games for the entertainment of those members of the police who find time hanging heavy on their hands while gathered at the Hall waiting to go out for duty.

The idea is also to have a place where the men may congregate and in the event their services may be neded, even while off duty, they will be prepared to respond to any emergency. The police are fitting up the rooms themselves, a part of the proceeds of the recent carnival going for that purpose while other funds have ben secured form private sources.

The committee in charge of the arrangements of the room is composed of Sergeant "Woody" Howell, Messrs. J. O. Bullard, Freeman Craig, J. S. Lane and A. Leon Long.

First Life Insurance Policy.

William Gibbons, who deserves to be better known, was the first man to insure his life. This policy was made in June, 1583, and was for the sum of £388 6s. 8d. for twelve months, sixteen underwriters dividing the risk. And this first policy also produced the first insurance law case, for when William died in the following May the underwriters attempted to maintain that twelve months meant twelve periods of twenty-eight days and had to be taken into court before they would pay up.—London Graphic.

LORD MERSEY TO AID IN INQUIRY

London, June 9.—At the invitation of the Canadian government the British Board of Trade appointed Lord Mersey, of Toxteth, a member of the court of inquiry into the disaster which caused the loss of the steamship Empress of Ireland and more than 1,000 lives. Lord Mersey was president of the British commission which investigated the Titanic tragedy.
